Mrs. Grace Chapman McGraw Tried to End Life-Stomach Pump Used and Patient Will Recover - Two Acci-

Mrs. Grace Chapman McGraw, aughter of Joseph Chapman, well nown in this city, attempted suicide shout 10 o'clock Saturday evening in her nooms in a Main street rooming louse. Another boarder was attracted to the room by the strange sounds heard there, and found Mrs. McGraw suffering from poison.
Patrolman Allen MacArthur was called at once and Dr. Owen O'Neili summoned. The latter used a stomach pump on his patient for upwards of an hour, and was rewarded at last by get-ting her in a condition where her re-covery seemed assured.

In the opinion of the authorities, Mrs. McGraw had been drinking and did not know what she was doing. Tincture of belladonna was the poison taken and about two spoonsful in all

HAS GIVEN AWAY TO CHARITIES $120,000,000.00

JOHN DAVIDSON ROCKFELLER The Richest Man in the World, Kepi Careful Accounting of All His Receipts and Expenditures.

To date Mr. Rockefeller has given to public benefactions the enormous sum of $120,000,000. Only a few months since he startled the world with his proposition to Congress to make of the Rockefeller Foundation national trust-to give the public the millions he now has. How has e amassed this fortune? By syssematic savings, by thrift, the exeralso of common sense and training his mind.

His first venture as abov was raismg turkeys, which he sold, starting ais fortune by saving the proceeds At sixteen he was tramping the streets of Cleveland looking for a lob, which he found as bookkeeper on the docks, receiving in all $50 for his arst three months' work-less than for a working day: then he was alsed to $25 a month, then $500 per rear. From the time he sold the turtevs he kept his accounts of money sceived and expended in what he is ased today to refer to as "Ledger " At eighteen he had saved $800. nd with $1,000 borrowed from his ather at 10 per cent (being his exectancy in the senior Rockefeller's state) he, with a young man named Mark, opened a commission house, thich at the end of the first year had one a $500,000 business. Then he beame interested in oil gathered about firn such men as H. M. Flagler and John D. Archbold and at the age of ifty-five was ready to retire from justness, the richest man in the world. with the members of the slub there, using the excellent courts of the library association. The Willimantie men came out a little better in the matches, although only four of the usual six were completed. Arnold and Foss defeated Vinton and Pederson 6-0, 2-0, 6-3; Plumb defeated Eaton 6-3, 4-6, 6-3; Foss defeated Morgan 6-0, 6-1; Abbe lost his match to Pederson 6-3, 4-6, 2-6. The other two matches, between Arnold and Vinton and Abbe and Plumb and Pederson and Eaton, were called, to allow the visitors to catch their car, with matters about even in both.

Welcomed Pleasant Weather, The pleasant weather of Saturday and Sunday was very welcome after the week of rain, and everyone who could do so was outdoors enjoying it. Two Accidents Sunday.

Two accidents occurred Saturday evening, neither of which, fortunately, resulted in serious injury. About 10 o'clock there was a collision between Dr. Gaucher's runabout and a man on a motorcycle near the corner of Wal-nut and Main streets, in which the smaller machine was damaged, and the smaller machine was damaged, and the rider bruised, but so far as could be ascertained no serious injury suffered the passing trolley, and the occupants patched up the damage and with the aid of a new wheel drove in the rest of the way to town. This accident was just above the twin bridges over the railroad track and the river, and only property damage resulted

South Manchester Won, At Recreation park Saturday after-noon the Trumps of South Manchester got away with the long end of a 3 to 2 got away with the long end of a 3 to 2 score from a picked team of the Thread Mill league in an interesting and well played game. Both Hamel and Brennan pitched good ball and received good support. The visitors scored twice in the first inning and the locals tied the score with single tallies in the second and fifth, only to lose out in the ninth, when the Trumps came through with one run, and then shut through with one run, and then shut the Mill leaguers out in their half. who is careful to protect himself in money matters, is careless about health—his most valuable asset.

For many, coffee drinking silently undermines health, because each cup contains about 21/2 grains of the cumulative, harmful drug, caffeine. Five to six grains of caffeine will kill a rabbit or a cat, and repeated daily will cripple a man. How cripple a man? The caffeine, little by little, causes hardening of the arteries and premature old age, showing more in some than in others.

Some of the symptoms of caffeine poisoning are headache, nervousness, biliousness, heart flutter, sleeplessness at night, and "fag" after coffee's reaction in the
